Frankford Pause Park Gets Moving and Streetscape Plans Win an Award

By Bob Smiley

On October 11th, the Frankford CDC officially broke ground on the first phase of the much-anticipated Frankford Pause Park at 4671-73 Paul Street near SEPTA's Arrott Transportation Center and next door to the Frankford CDC's new offices at the Darl Building.

This first phase of the park includes bright pink artificial turf stripes on the ground and on the surrounding walls to illustrate the sound of the passing elevated Market-Frankford Line; planting beds; planter-benches; trees; and a stage area. During the first phase, the Frankford CDC will pilot different types of community programming and observe how the space is used and how people interact with the space, as part of the Frankford CDC and Philadelphia City Planning Commission's Destination Frankford initiative. LOCUS Partners has prepared full construction drawings for the final buildout. Alexa Bosse of Hinge Collective, who worked on the initial conceptual design, designed the pilot phase which is currently under construction.

Funding for this phase of Frankford Pause Park comes from ArtPlace America and the Frankford CDC. Future phases have funding commitments from Councilwoman Maria Quinones-Sanchez, the Philadelphia Department of Commerce, and the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society.

Present at the groundbreaking were Frankford CDC Executive Director Kimberly Washington, City Councilwoman Maria Quinones-Sanchez, State Representative Jason Dawkins, City Planners Larissa Klevan and Ian Litwin, Landscape Architect Alexa Bosse, contractor Ruban Villatoro, and staff from the offices of Councilwoman Quinones-Sanchez, State Representative Dawkins, and the Frankford CDC. On October 18th at the Kimmel Center the AIA (American Institute informing adjustments to the later phases and final design.

Further, this phase will allow the space to be put to active use while additional funds are raised for the full, final buildout of the park. Completion of the first phase is anticipated to finish by the end of October. Community Planting Days will be held on Friday, October 27th, and Saturday, October 28th, from 10:00 AM until 2:00 PM. The Frankford Garden Club will be supervising the planting and hosting workshops throughout the planting days.

The Frankford Pause Park was conceptualized through a community design process with the Community Design Collaborative in 2014 of Architects) - Philadelphia presented the Community Design Award to the Frankford Community Development Corporation and Richard Carroll, Brad Springer, Robin Miller, Sophia Lundeholm, Carrie Sauer and Michael Williams for excellence in design, collaboration and community impact in the

Northwood Civic Scores a Big Win Against Blight

By Bob Smiley

Congratulations to Joe Krause and the Northwood Civic Association on their big victory over EverBank of Jacksonville, Florida, the owner of 1301 Wakeling Street. At a court hearing on October 19th, Scioli Turco was appointed conservator of the property. Immediate improvements will begin to be made to the outside of the property and the home will be repaired inside and out to be marketed for sale as a single family home in the coming months.

Scioli Turco is a community and neighborhood development organization who works on behalf of neighborhoods to take over blighted properties and return them to the market when the owners cannot or will not do so.

This case goes back to April 16th, 2016 when the first hearing was held and the judge ordered the owner to do the repairs and get the house on the market for sale by June 1st. They did not comply but managed to forestall the conservatorship for almost a year and a half.

Runners warm up on October 21st before the start of the 2nd Annual Run4Frankford 5k organized by the Power Circle Mentors

It was Trunk or Treat at the 4th Annual Community Spirit Day honoring Al Stark Junior at St. Mark's Church on October 14th. A good time was had by the kids and adults.

It was a record turnout at the Overington Park Fall Festival on October 21st on a warm Fall day. What more could you ask for?

Frankford NAC Zoning Meeting was Contentious

By Christine DeJesus

All cases at the Frankford NAC zoning meeting held on October 10th were continued for various reasons. Some applicants failed to provide blueprints and pictures of property. Applicants have to do their homework before appearing at the NAC or the project will experience delays.

5127 Duffield Street – Develop lot into Veterans housing

4535 Tackawanna Street – Legalization of a five dwelling unit

4410-16 Frankford Avenue – To be used as a Hall/ Entertain Events with food service

The next meeting of the Frankford NAC zoning group will be held on November 9th at 7 PM at 4667 Paul Street. In addition to the cases that were continued, the board will hear:

4562 Hawthorne Street—PERMIT FOR AUTO REPAIR SHOP TO INCLUDE BODY AND FENDER WORK (NO SPRAY PAINTING) (PERSONAL VEHICLE REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE) IN AN EXISTING STRUCTURE.

4938 Penn Street—Rooming house for 6 people
